Church Garden: we would like to create a working party for a one-off effort to get our lovely garden, including the memorial roses which are special to a lot of us at Beulah, up to a maintainable level. Moving forward, once the garden is on a good level it will be much easier to maintain and could perhaps warrant a Gardening Club to be formed if there is any interest; this may or may not include refreshments! Please let the office know if you could help with the initial clearance, any help would be greatly appreciated.

Our church secretary, Erika James, will be away on holiday this coming week until 27th April.

Our Senior pastor, Rev David Lockwood is currently on sabbatical until June 30th. During this time, if you have a pastoral concern, please make sure you contact an elder or the pastoral team via the office. The office hours are 9.00am - 1.00pm Monday to Friday. Tel 01424730001 (office@beulahbaptist.co.uk). There is a photo board in the reception area, with photos of our elders and pastoral coordinators.

Please note the following updates to the church directory:

Mrs Catherine Morton has moved last Saturday to be nearer her daughter. Her new address is in the updated directory, included under 'Members living away'.

Malcolm & Pauline Daw have cancelled their landline and so are now only available on their mobile phones. The latest directory has been updated to include this information.

BGT Showcase - 27th April @ 6pm

The artists are ready, the time is near, let's celebrate Beulah's talent.

This year, donations will be shared between Satellites Youth Camp and Tanzania for sponsoring a teacher for young women to learn tailoring & dress making.

Card payments: our contactless card machines have been fixed and are back up & running! If you don't usually carry cash but would still like to make a donation, we have two contactless card machines, one located on the reception desk, and a more discreet one mounted on the wall in the foyer.

Next week our guest speaker will be Peterson Anand, the minister at New Hope Baptist Church in Eastbourne. We look forward to welcoming Peterson and hearing the message from him.
